

Public call for applications for the admission to the CLICI Summer School a.y. 23-24

Delivery period: from 6 July 2024 until 27th July 2024

Registration deadline: 6 May 2024

Art.1 – Object and Purpose

CLICI – Center for Italian language and culture – of Tor Vergata University of Rome issues a notice of public selection (a total number of at most 80 places are available) to enroll the CLICI Summer School a.y. 23-24 that will take place 6 – 27 July 2024.

CLICI Summer School wants to enhance the knowledge of Italian language and culture to international students from all over the world by offering an intensive course that includes lessons of Italian language, and tourist-cultural itineraries mainly across Metropolitan City of Rome Capital and Castelli Romani.

Art. 2 – Programmes

CLICI Summer School program offers 2 types of programmes:

1 - Full Programme from 8th-20th July, 2024 includes the following activities:

Language Lessons

Students will participate in 30 hours of Italian language lessons scheduled from Monday to Friday morning. Classes will be held by teachers designated by CLICI as qualified for teaching Italian as a foreign language. The employed teaching methodology places the student at the center of the learning process through interactive and entertaining activities aimed to engage students and encourage them to use the Italian language in different contexts (formal and informal). Lessons will be adapted to the students' language skill level and will also deal with topics connected to the tourist-cultural itineraries. Classes will be held in CLICI's classrooms at 'Campus X'.

Itineraries

Students are going to participate in 6 tourist-cultural itineraries to be attended in the afternoon (4 hours each) and 2 itineraries on Saturdays (8 hours each). Participants will be led to discover the natural and cultural heritage of the territory of Rome and its surroundings across Lazio. The itineraries will be carried out promoting a slow and sustainable tourism with the aim of providing immersive and interdisciplinary experiences. Participants will enjoy strategically constructed narratives which combine different topics relating to history, literature, artistic and performative productions, craftsmanship, food and wine traditions.

For Full Programme, a total number of at most 50 places are available.

The complete program with all its details is available on the CLICI website, at the following link:
